Invitation Materials

Author:

- 1 The Apostle Paul

Date:

Probably A.D. 56-57, but no later than A.D. 59

Theme:

Being right with God through faith in Christ.

Historical Background:

- 1 Paul wrote to introduce himself to the church at Rome. He intended to stop there en route to Spain.
- 2 He was eager to assure the Roman Christians that, in spite of any rumors they might have heard, his message was indeed the gospel of grace of God in Christ Jesus.
- 3 The church in Rome had not been planted by Paul. It may have been started by Roman Jews who were converted on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2.10).
- 4 The church was a mixture of Jewish and Gentile believers. At that point in time they were experiencing some tensions between two groups of believers.

Characteristics

- 1 The big issue in this letter is how anyone can be right with God on the final day of judgment.
- 2 In his most precise theological statement in the NT, Paul asserts that right standing comes through faith in Jesus Christ who died for us as a sacrifice for sin.
- 3 In light of the Jewish-gentile tensions in the church, Paul makes it clear that no one has an "edge" on God; rather all stand condemned before him because no one has kept his Law.
- 4 Paul also declares the good news that forgiveness, acceptance, and the new life of the Spirit come to all of us as God's gift to be received by faith.
- 5 Chapters 1-11 speak of what God has done for all who believe, while 12-16 show how believers ought to live in response to the lavish grace of God.

Discussion Questions

Open

- 1 What are the differences between Mandarin and Cantonese speaking groups at Auckland Chinese Baptist Church?

Dig

- 1 Tensions between Jews and Gentiles in this church were one reason Paul wrote. Read 2:17-29; 11:11-24; 14:5-13.
- 2 Look at 1:16-18 and 3:9-24. What things does Paul say all people have in common?
- 3 Read these "gospel summaries": 3:21-26; 5:1-8; 8:1-4. What does each one emphasize about what Jesus has done for us?

Reflect

- 1 On a scale of 1 (It is really on the shelf) to 10 (My life revolves around Christ), where are you now in your response to the Gospel? Why?
